

TERMS FOR CLIMBERS

Read the participation conditions carefully, sign and hand them over to the park staff. Young people under the age of 18 must have a guardian's approval and signature to participate. Always ask the staff if something feels unclear.

- You must undergo a safety briefing and follow all rules that TreeWalker's instructor gives you.
- You must not be under the influence of alcohol or other drugs.
- You must not smoke with the climbing harness on.
- We do not recommend that you participate if you are pregnant, have neck or back problems.
- You must not weigh more than 120kg.
- Children under 13 must be accompanied by an adult climber.
- As an adult climber, you may be responsible for a maximum of three children.
- You have full responsibility for you/your minor's activity and safety during the stay.
- You may use the toilet without a harness.
- Harness and helmet must be returned to staff, and may not be removed and left in the park.
- Handle the equipment with care, if you deliberately destroy it or are careless you will be liable for compensation.
- Tie up long hair and put away loose objects before climbing.

I have read and understood the conditions of participation that apply to the TreeWalker high-altitude course.

---

Signature and name clarification/Date

---

Signature and name clarification

---

Signature and name clarification

---

Signature and name clarification

---

Signature and name clarification

---

Signature and name clarification

---

Signature and name clarification

---

Signature and name clarification

TreeWalker accepts no responsibility for any damage to clothing, personal items or theft. TreeWalker assumes no responsibility for any damages or accidents that occur when specified instructions/terms of use are not followed or if incorrect information has been given to staff or in the terms of use. TreeWalker's staff reserves the right to exclude people from the park who do not follow the rules and to stop the climb when there is danger (e.g. storm, thunderstorm, etc.) You also agree that the photos that may be taken during the visit to the course may be used by TreeWalker (otherwise, inform the staff).