

THE 30 MINUTE WORKDAY

The Ultimate Freedom Business Blueprint!

How to Create Maximum Wealth in Minimum Time, Doing Something You Love...
Without All of The Hard, Techy, Time Consuming Stuff You Don't Like!

Step #1: Decide what passion, interest, or calling you want to build a business around by helping people achieve their goals.

Step #2: Partner, or become an affiliate for a company, tools, products, or services that ALREADY has a thriving business helping those people in that area.

Step #3: Determine who has ALREADY built large groups of the people you'd like to help, and use the done for you copy, ads, and resources from the company in step #2 to place ads there and start building your list. Good companies have affiliate resources in place for you already.

Step #4: Learn something daily in the area you're building a business around..

Step #5: Freely share what you're learning with the people on your list in whatever way that works best for you (email, podcast, video, blog post, social post, etc.)

Step #6: As you share cool stuff that helps the people on your list get closer to their goals, recommend the paid products from step #2 that could help them reach their goals faster, or easier, or in a better way, etc..

Step #7: Repeat steps 3 - 6 daily, or multiple times per week.

That's it... and once you've partnered with a good company, the daily steps can be done in as little as 30 minutes to 1 hour per day!

The key is to be consistent, and provide value to your list that you're building DAILY or multiple times per week for a long period of time.

Over time, if you are providing value and excitement and vision daily, you will start getting sales in the coolest way possible..

You'll get paid for learning about stuff that you have an interest or passion in (and you're probably already learning stuff all the time) and sharing cool stuff with people that you want to help.

Simple. Easy. Awesome.

Practical Example

Let's say I Want to Build a Business in the Weight Loss Niche Helping Women:

For example sake... I love health and fitness and have a passion for helping women have the body and health status they feel good about. I am also already listening to podcasts, watching videos, reading books, and am a part of several health and fitness groups online. I have an interest AND some knowledge already in the health and fitness area as a result of doing those things.

1. I partner (Become an Affiliate) with a company called Lady Boss who specializes in helping women lose weight and be healthy.
2. I find people, influencers, or groups on Facebook who already have large groups of women interested in health and weight loss.
3. I use the ads, resources, and copy that Lady Boss has already PROVEN works and place ads on Facebook, so I can start building my list.

Then, Here's What I'd Do Daily...

4. Because I love it, I listen to multiple health and fitness podcasts daily, as well as interact with several groups, read books, etc.
5. I share something I learned from the content I consumed with my list
6. As I share cool stuff that gets the people on my list closer to their goals, I also recommend Lady Boss products that help get them to their goals faster.

Quick Recap: I get paid to share what I learn from listening to, watching, and reading the stuff I was ALREADY consuming. How cool is that?
