

Non-Executive Director Job Description

A management consulting firm is looking for eight non-executive directors who can make wise recommendations at the board level. You'll be a creative, strategic company leader or expert in your field with some board experience to carry out support in several aspects of business functions. Board members will be required to attend the AGM in person.

We are seeking an independent board of advisors with some experience, to carry out support in several aspects of business functions. You will be the pioneering board, commercially minded, have good judgement, influence peers and objectively challenge others in a motivating and supportive manner. Ideally, we seek an experienced group of expert individuals that can provide invaluable suggestions to small business owners or managerial teams of small businesses.

Requirements

The competencies required are encouraged to express interest and or apply, ranging from business Industry Expertise: ranging from IT, Finance and Accounting, Marketing and Sales, Legal, Software, and Human Resources including consulting background or similar. Among the skills we seek, are investor fundraising, networking and mentoring skills with communication and flexibility being the critical aspects of an ideal board member.

Ideally, we seek an experienced group of expert individuals that can provide invaluable suggestions including introducing investors and monitoring business performance. We seek expert advisors with in-depth knowledge of the relevant business sectors to become a part of the advisory boards. Be ready to impart skill by sharing insights, and knowledge and teaching certain business know-how where you see fit.

Mandatory requirements for the advisory board members are as follows:

High level of education – Master's degree level to Doctorate level.

Technical expertise – Anyone of the above skills will be an advantage.

Interpersonal skills – Emotional intelligence is a prerequisite

Entrepreneurship interests – This is critical and some experience

Management skills – Some experience in top-level managerial roles. Who may apply?

Non-Executive Director Job Description

We do not have a single right answer, for the general qualities we require, but we know that varied backgrounds and qualified individuals with business management and leadership experience to complement specific skills, knowledge and experience of business owners is the ideal skill set.

The Board member needs to be able to provide their support in time and put in the effort required in their position to provide strategic leadership and judgement as a non-executive director.

All above-named functional backgrounds and specialisations, and or including individuals with roles such as CEO/CTO/CFO/COO/CMO/Chief Legal Officer (CLO)/Chief Strategy Officer (CSO) /Chief Diversity Officer (CDO)/Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO)/ Chief Revenue Officer (CRO) and CHARTERED DIRECTORS are encouraged to express interest and apply.

Benefits & Remuneration

At the start – of the first year, the role is a voluntary position but poses a great challenge for one's CV especially if successful. Therefore, the position attracts no fees but reimbursement of expenses for travel on behalf of a business. The role is renewable for up to three years in total.

Compensation will be reviewed after one year and based on performance and the success of the business and or the board's success to fundraise for the business. The Board meets quarterly each year, and within their working groups for strategy and planning, supporting growth strategies.

When required, conference calls take place on an ad hoc basis as and when required/requested. You can expect to contribute your hours amounting to one and a half hours per month, which translates to a maximum of 20 working days a year on the board's business.

CLOSING DATE: 10 DECEMBER 2022