

About Karina Chapman – Soul-Journey Adventure Author, International Speaker and Conscious Connection Expert

Born in country South Australia, Karina Chapman is based in Adelaide. She has always loved communicating through both the spoken and written word.

A natural storyteller with a background in the hair and beauty industry, Karina loves connecting with others.

After experiencing her own share of disaster dates as well as hearing the stories of hundreds of others, she was inspired to create her fictional book series 'The Vixen's Secret Handbook' as well as her upcoming non-fiction title 'Do Date the Wrong Men- How to Manifest Mr Right through Dating Mr Wrongs' currently in pre-production stage.

With fictional novels written under the name KM Chapman, her first book of the series called 'Adventure Vixen - A Modern dating Tale' is out now. Her second book of the series 'International Vixen - Defying Dating Rules' — will be released late 2021.

Karina speaks on how to use Conscious Connection to attract not only a new romantic partner, but also for growing your friendship circle and growing your business network and clients. She also holds 'Finding Mr Right' programs online and Retreats.

Karina's passion is to inspire others to rediscover their own inner light and become empowered through her books and powerful disruptive message of Conscious Connection.

Her intention is to entertain and educate by sharing her wisdom and humour in stories of Soul-Journey Adventures gained by embracing change throughout her own life experiences.

A leader with the Speakers Tribe SA, Karina is a certified Mindfulness Instructor and Life Coach, a volunteer for the Healing Through Love Pamper Days and a Mentor.

When she is not working, Karina loves to paint, read, spend time at the beach, enjoys time with family and friends, and travels as often as possible to tropical destinations.

www.karinachapman.com