Instructor Details

Bryan Rade ND has used injection therapies extensively since his first training course in neural therapy with Robert Kidd MD in 2009. He has pursued additional training in injection therapies with Dietrich Klinghardt MD; neural therapy with Jeff Harris ND; prolotherapy and PRP with Hal Blattman MD, Kevin Davison ND, and the American Osteopathic Association of Prolotherapy and Regenerative Medicine (AOAPRM); perineural injection therapy with John Lyftogt MD; and ozone therapy with Frank Shallenberger MD. These injection therapies have been a major part of Dr. Rade's practice in which he focuses on treating patients with chronic health issues such as persistent borreliosis/coinfections, mold illness, neurological disorders, SIBO, autism spectrum disorder, pain, PANDAS/PANS and cancer. He teaches an annual certification course in ozone therapy and has lectured on injection therapies for the American Academy of Ozonotherapy, AOAPRM and ILADS.
