Women in Public Finance Los Angeles Chapter

2022 Scholarship Application

Women in Public Finance–Los Angeles Chapter is a non-profit, educational, and professional networking organization for women in the public finance industry. Governed by a board of directors that represent the areas of finance, banking, and law, the organization sponsors a variety of philanthropic events in support of women. To learn more about us, please visit our website: <https://www.losangeleswpcf.com/>.

What is Public Finance?

Public finance generally refers to how governments raise and spend money for capital projects. Individuals who work in public finance help governments at all levels—national, state, and local—obtain the capital necessary to finance many different types of infrastructure projects, including but not limited to K-14 schools, colleges and universities, fire and police stations, libraries, public transportation, airports, parks, clean water projects, and hospitals.

Scholarship and Award Overview

Women in Public Finance-Los Angeles Chapter operates a scholarship program that provides two $2,500 scholarships annually. The purpose of the Women in Public Finance–Los Angeles Chapter scholarship program is to:

- 1) Recognize college-bound, female high school seniors who have exhibited scholastic achievement and demonstrated leadership skills;
- 2) Encourage the consideration of careers in finance and, more specifically, public finance; and,
- 3) Provide an opportunity for award recipients to meet women established in the public finance industry and learn about various career options and opportunities available to them.

Application

To qualify and apply for the Scholarship and Award, the applicant must, at a minimum:

- 1) Be a female, high school senior who either lives or attends school within Los Angeles County
- 2) Intends to attend college in the Fall of 2022;
- 3) Have at least a 3.0 GPA, or equivalent;
- 4) Exhibit leadership skills through extracurricular activities, volunteer positions, and/or work experience;
