

Student Examples:

Use this template to help your students display their goals in a clever and CUTE way! Students can write their goals directly on the template, and then draw the top half of their head and hands, as if they are looking out from behind their writing. My students loved this activity, and they all turned out to be so cute and unique! Have fun!