It's almost over... endings and new beginnings

What a year! So much happened around the globe. More humans than before are noticing the unpleasant impacts on their lives due to horrifying news and a perceived increased level of uncertainty. As this year comes to an end we, at the Daisy Papp Mindset Evolution Foundation, continue advocating inner peace with simple mindset adjustments that last, to empower humans around the globe.

...are we there yet?

As this this newsletter is in the process of being generated, I just received news that the award-winning Bald and Blonde Mindset Evolution podcast we are supporting, now has listeners in 77 countries!

Our latest reports show that the podcast now also has listeners in Iran.

Only through your support and sharing is it possible to reach humans bypassing cultural and geographic distances. We wonder which will be the next country joining in?

Wow... I just received another message: Welcome to Finland! We now have listeners in 78 countries!

We wonder, which country will be next?

Thanks to Florida Keys Media we now have PSA's (Public Service Announcements) airing on 7 local radio stations several times a day. We aim to get the attention of humans in need of help and also wish to expand on the number of our supporters. Together We Are Strong!

Human Values

Humans are doing business with humans. That's fact. Humans work with humans. Humans befriend humans. Humans argue with humans. Humans build communities with other humans. Humans start families with humans. The afore mentioned facts reflect only a few examples of how humans connect.

We, at the Daisy Papp Mindset Evolution Foundation have many visions. One of them is to empower humans and increase their commitment to, and quality of integrity. When empowered humans with integrity come together, empowered societies, communities, families, businesses, etc. with integrity can come about. Can you envision our lives being filled with human connections that are built on integrity?

We see this time and era as a fantastic opportunity for humanity. In order to cultivate integrity we offer free workshops, lectures, and individual consultations to humans everywhere, in communities, schools, universities, families, groups; professionals, and individuals alike.

Please, share with everyone you feel is receptive to this opportunity. We live our purpose to serve humans, around the globe. We are looking forward to receiving inquiries and hearing your ideas and concerns. The easiest way to connect with us is by clicking here and filling out the contact form.

Together We Are Strong

We have formed connections with humans from around the globe, some of whom are close to leaders of countries on several continents. Currently, we are working on producing a video series where we speak with experts in their own field (and geographic location) discussing forward-thinking concepts, finding solutions, brain-storming how we can cultivate human values and integrity and implement these into the current education systems.

This certainly takes time. Nevertheless, we are unstoppable in serving humanity to inspire a valuable present and a better future for all.
