Daisy Papp Mindset Evolution Foundation

August 15th 2022

Q 3 2022

The 3rd quarter of this year is here as it started with the beginning of July. We are now in the midst of this third quarter of 2022, no matter where you are located on Earth geographically.

While some businesses have deadlines, the Daisy Papp Mindset Evolution Foundation approaches planning on achieving goals by urgency. So, what is it that we consider urgent matters now? Subjectively and globally, we observe the need of more peace, more understanding, more healthy communication, more connection, just to name a few. What is the common denominator? Humans.

To achieve a higher quality of the above-mentioned matters at the Foundation we work internationally and unstoppably.

The many meetings and conversations we had recently face to face and over video communication services with humans from around the globe reveal the great need to creatively and respectfully adjust to the big changes we are facing as a species. Wherever we look it becomes more and more visible and is clearly noticeable that we as humans appear to have arrived at a dead end where adjustments are required to guarantee our survival. The Chinese word for crisis also means chance.

Let's focus on the chances and opportunities to make smart adjustments for the better for all. The Daisy Papp Mindset Evolution Foundation strongly believes that with two simple concepts, The Island Model and The Formula for Finding True Love we can make this place, our beautiful Earth a peaceful and lovely environment to enjoy our gift received at birth: LIFE.

PRIORITIES

Daisy Papp Mindset Evolution Foundation

August 15th 2022

Priorities - We Need YOUR Help

Our priorities now are the following:

-Continue speaking to groups and communities live, face-to-face, and online.

Cost ongoing approximately $2,000 monthly

-Proof-reading, editing, formatting, and publishing The Island Model Spanish edition

Cost approximately $2,500

-Translate The Formula for Finding True Love into Russian language.

Cost approximately $9,000

-Start free workshops for the Spanish speaking community in the US and online with an interpreter. I volunteer to conduct the workshops at no cost and pay for my travel cost in the state of Florida.

Cost approximately for a 3 hour workshop interpretation $600/workshop. (I need an interpreter as I do not speak Spanish, yet.)

-Continue producing empowering Bald and Blonde podcast episodes.

Cost for the next 3 months approximately $3,000

Please help the Daisy Papp Mindset Evolution Foundation.

Thank you for your kind and generous consideration to support the one human family. We strongly believe that we can empower communities and inspire peace and love for all and therefore prevent worse things from happening that affects not only us but especially future generations.

Almost ready

The Island Model - Homo sapiens Isolatus has been translated into Spanish and is still in the final stage of proofreading. We urgently need help and seek for a generous donor to support the publishing of this book. The next steps are formatting into kindle, eBook, and printed paperback. We need help in financing these steps to finally publish this life-changing, logical, easy-to-read, and easy-to-apply piece of literature.

The Inverse Method

The INVERSE Method was received gratefully in several European countries. Daisy travels around the European continent this summer and introduced the INVERSE Method to humans from all walks of life, including world champions. This coming September we start actively interacting on Telegram. We use Telegram Messenger and have created a channel for exchanging experiences for the English-speaking community. We seek contributors to help market the app on social media to a wide audience. Join our telegram channel free: <https://t.me/InverseUS>

73 countries

We are thrilled to report that the Bald and Blonde Mindset Evolution Podcast achieved yet another milestone: The podcast now has listeners in 73 countries. Last week we recorded the 112th episode! We appreciate all the contributions to date. We urgently need more support to remain ad-free. In order to achieve our "ad-free" goal, we need to receive donations to continue producing episodes regularly and of the highest quality.

Gratitude

We Are Grateful - sincerely

We know we couldn't possibly do it all alone! The world is not set up to get the best results alone; neither for us nor for anyone else. We also know that there are many kind-hearted humans who are willing to help. Many don't know how to find a meaningful matter and trustworthy Foundation to support. We are grateful for the very few humans who found us and are fulfilled by supporting us. We thank you. Please, share joyfully with your family and friends that we exist and that we do all we can to support humans around the globe for a better togetherness for all of us.

Innovative self-development to all interested and in need is elemental and essential alike. We are one human family, and we consider it an urgent matter to share innovative and easy to acquire tools and skills that make a huge difference. We are currently working on a short video filled with testimonials. We keep you informed when the video is available to watch.

We promise

We promise – responsibly

We take promises seriously. We only promise when we can commit to the promise we make. Our quest is to reach all members of the one human family. When we achieve just a fraction of our vision societies will be more understanding, peaceful and get accustomed to higher standards of integrity.

Over the past 12 years Daisy has collected much feedback from clients including workshop and seminar attendees. Amongst thousands of humans who were introduced to The Island Model and The Formula for Finding True Love all of them reported major improvement in their quality of life.

We promise to remain unstoppable and keep progressing. We love humans and support all members of the one human family. We stand for integrity and transparency.

We promise. Do you?
