Fushia Design Newsletter - May 2022

Hi everyone

Isn't it just wonderful to have the long days back, especially when they're accompanied by a wee bit of sunshine.

Yes, spring is in full bloom and Fushia Design are definitely embracing it.

What have Fushia Design been doing recently?

We've been fluffing and preening with cushions and throws

Leaving homes gleaming with lighting that glows

Some of the houses are so very grand

And the great teams we work with, are always at hand

There's been rocking and rolling, Paul Weller we saw

Then around Brighton strolling, the pavilion and more

The garden is prepped and ready for sun

So let's turn up the heat and embrace summer fun

One thing I've realised over the years is that I'm never going to have a favourite property, each month, or even week brings a "new favourite".

These are a couple of shots from 5 Little Horwood Manor, a stunning property that I had the pleasure of working on with Michael Graham <https://www.michaelgraham.co.uk/>

Together with the photographer, Oliver Hewitt and videographer, Max Bennett, it combined a great team with a beautiful project.

It's quite a privilege to do all these grand houses but what is also rewarding is to work on a local project.

Just to prove that my job isn't always luxury and glamour, this is a design, source and install project I continue to work on at our local dental practice.

However, it's also important to take some time out. This picture was taken in Brighton on the day I saw Paul Weller - what an amazing concert that was.

I did manage to mix in a bit of business by picking up a few trinkets in The Lanes.

Finally, I don't know about you, but I took advantage of some of the lovely weather we've had lately and started getting my garden "summer ready".

You don't need to restrict home styling to your property's interior, the outside is just as important.

Spring has well and truly sprung and Fushia Design are working hard and having fun, I look forward to catching up with you all again soon.

Until next time,
Cheerio
Fiona

Have a great February everyone, not long until spring now.
