homelessness or who are under-resourced. Please add comfort

PLYMOUTH CHURCH HERALD

REGISTER FOR SPRING SUMMITS

FAITH DOING JUSTICE

with you about what happened this legislative session. Most importantly, we seek to hear your concerns and priorities for what we might do together in the months ahead.

Essential to this outreach is our annual Spring Summits, which we've scheduled for two Sundays this spring: 3-4:30 pm May 5 and June 9. We've opted to host these summits online to allow more people to join and to enable advocates from across the state to hear from each other. During this year's summits, we'll be able to celebrate legislative wins and hear about what is needed to move forward next session. Your voices matter to us!
Last year, many attendees expressed concerns for young people and mental health—we heard you and worked with NAMI
this year to advocate for some important bills that passed!

Please visit FANWA.org for more info and to register.

FORWARD TOGETHER: CONFERENCE ANNUAL MEETING APRIL 26-28

Please join us in welcoming Rev.
Dr. Karen Georgia A. Thompson

also welcome new churches
into our conference and hear from representatives from the Christian Centre for Justice,
Peace and Nonviolent Action
and missionaries from Bogata, Colombia, sponsored by Global Ministries and our conference.

At Plymouth April 26-28: help needed!

Volunteer help is needed and much appreciated. Please visit PNCUCC.org for information on volunteering and consider assisting with this year's meeting. Email Arlene@pncucc.org
