Independent Baptist Seminary does not hold, and does not seek to hold, state accreditation. We do not confer secular degrees. The seminary is a ministry of Capitol Baptist Church in response to the biblical directive to "... teach others also" in II Timothy 2:2. The seminary does not seek state approval or any other secular recognition for our courses of instruction. No student should consider his education from this institute qualifying him to hold a secular employment position. Any graduating certificate/diploma signifies the completion of a course of study that will equip God's servant for ministry in a like-faith local independent Baptist church. Independent Baptist Seminary models our format and instruction to be similar to a college atmosphere, but this is no guarantee that our "credits" will be accepted by other post-secondary institutions. However, other Bible colleges have accepted them.
