

Do good, be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share...Take hold of the life that really is life.

- 1 Timothy 6:18-19

Once asked to write a full story in six words, legend has it that novelist Ernest Hemingway responded: "For Sale: baby shoes, never worn."

We asked some members of the congregation, "How would you tell the story of First Presbyterian Church in six words?" Here are some of the answers...

Dedication Sunday service is on Sunday, October 22. In all four worship services, we will receive our estimates of giving for 2024 and dedicate our gifts as a sign and symbol of our commitment to service to others in God's name. But if you can't make it that day, there are plenty more ways to express your financial support.

Ways to Pledge

1. Return the pledge card in worship.
2. Return the pledge card with your commitment to the FPCA Finance Office. (Drop off or mail.)
3. Visit fpcallentown.org/give.
4. Scan the QR Code.

I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

- Isaiah 43:19

Do we perceive it?
How can we be part of it?

Hands and hearts celebrating God's LOVE.

Christ's body, hearts, hands, voices, feet.

Revitalized in God's Love!
Needed: YOU!

Be YOU.
Welcome ALL.
Grow TOGETHER.

LOVE God.

Love neighbor.

That's all.

Hearts UNITE to spread God's LIGHT.

Roots, STRONG and deep.
New growth.

We make extending God's love TRADITION.
