The Community

Looking for a vibrant community to call home with access to numerous outdoor activities and an award-winning culinary scene? Look no further than Jefferson County, the largest county in the state of Alabama (more than 670,000 residents). The central location of our county in the state positions us to be close to a wide variety of outdoor activities. From hiking and biking at State Parks, to weekends on the lake within a quick drive, our community has much to offer. If you love great food, we have James Beard Award winning chefs and an unparalleled craft beer scene. Zagat included us on the list of America's Next Hot Food Cities.

Into sports? So are we! The United States Football League (USFL) made Birmingham its home, playing all games at our new Protective Stadium in the heart of the UpTown entertainment district during its inaugural season. There is also Birmingham Legion Soccer, the Birmingham Baron's Baseball, University of Alabama at Birmingham college football, the Honda Grand Prix at Barber Motorsports Park, and the Regions Tradition Senior PGA Golf Tournament.

Culture is at the heart of our community with the Birmingham Civil Rights National Historic District, featuring the Birmingham Civil Rights Museum and the newly restored A.G. Gaston Motel. The Birmingham Museum of Art is also nationally recognized for its works and exhibits.

Educational opportunities abound here. The University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) is an urban university with approximately 16,000 students. Both its Nursing and Dental schools rank among the best in the country and it's a world-renowned medical hospital and research facility. There are also several other local colleges and universities that provide a wide range of educational specialties from vocational training to liberal arts programs. We also have great secondary and primary schools with the Alabama School of Fine Arts, Birmingham's EPIC School, i3 Academy and the Jefferson County International Baccalaureate School.

Music and Arts take center stage in our community, whether it's at one of our downtown music halls, the Legacy Arena at the Birmingham Jefferson Convention Center, UAB Performing Arts, or neighboring Oak Mountain Amphitheatre, you can find a genre that fits your mood and interests. Historical Sloss Furnace also plays hosts to a variety of events, from bands to the Magic City Art Connection.

Living is easy in Jefferson County. Birmingham has emerging loft districts in the heart of downtown, or you can opt for the suburbs in one of the 34 neighboring municipalities. Commutes are easy thanks to 5 interstates, and the cost of living is some of the lowest in the region. Lending Tree named Birmingham as one of the Top 10 most affordable cities for first time home buyers.

Jefferson County and the Birmingham region has so much to offer, it's no wonder that other businesses such as Shipt, Landing and the J.M. Smucker's company decided to locate here. In fact, in 2022, the city hosted the World Games and welcomed in thousands of athletes from around the world. There are also three automotive manufacturers in the region: Mercedes-Benz U.S International, Honda Manufacturing of Alabama, and AutoCar, they are supported by 25 automotive suppliers.

The Organization

Jefferson County provides vital services to the residents of the county through approximately 2,500 employees in 35 departments with responsibilities and duties to include construction of roads and bridges, keeping our waterways clean, collecting and distributing motor vehicle taxes, plus more through the continued support of the economic growth and development of the county and surrounding areas. Our diverse group of employees utilizes their knowledge, skills and abilities by working together to provide quality and effective public services to our residents to ensure needs are met. Jefferson County contributes to and strengthens the quality of life of its residents for more economic prosperity by attracting new businesses and developing a quality workforce.

The County's mission, vision and core values drive all facets of its services, serve as the foundation of the organization's future, and encompass the ideals that guide decisions, shape culture, and establish standards.

- Mission: Providing exceptional, everyday service through character and competence.
- Vision: To be a model local government that anticipates and meets the evolving needs of the diverse community with energy, character, dedication, and accountability.
- Core Values: Transparency, Inclusion, Integrity, Innovation, Energetic Service, and Safety.

Jefferson County's daily administration of county government is managed by a County Manager as the Chief Executive Officer. Under the County Manager form of government, the County Commission is the governing body of Jefferson County with five Commissioners elected from districts, for concurrent four-year terms. The Commissioners distribute the powers and duties conferred by law upon the County Commission and the members as they deem fit and efficient, and seek to promote the health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of Jefferson County.

The County's Financial Environment

Jefferson County has an integral and important responsibility to its citizens to carefully account for public funds, to wisely manage these funds, and to plan adequate funding of services the public considers necessary. The Commission manages an operating and capital budget of approximately 882 million annually. The Commission has a total governmental asset of 1.4 billion. Business type activities consist primarily of a sanitary operations enterprise fund with assets of 2.5 billion, and annual revenues in the amount of 268 million. The Commission also maintains 16 separately reported special revenue funds with annual revenue of approximately 348 million. Jefferson County maintains a financially stable general fund balance of 277 million. Additionally, to ensure long-term financial health of the County, Jefferson County has established three separate reserve funds (Economic Uncertainty Fund, Budget Stabilization Fund, and Catastrophic Event Fund). As of September 30, 2022, the County's total cash reserve balance in these emergency reserve accounts was approximately $60.2 million. The Commission utilizes the Tyler Munis ERP software to account for its financial activities. Jefferson County Commission was awarded a Distinguished Budget Presentation Award by the Government Finance Officers Association for its annual budget document dated October 1, 2022.

The Finance Department

The Finance Department is honored to serve on behalf of the County Commission to be fiscally responsible, customer focused and team oriented. Its mission is to efficiently and effectively manage the financial operations, assets, and liabilities of Jefferson County through accounting, budgeting, and purchasing. The Department also manages the County's debt portfolio; the County's investment portfolios; and a cooperative purchasing program which reduces costs to members including many cities within the County. This includes ensuring all financial transactions are recorded in the accounting system, developing and maintaining a robust enterprise resource planning (ERP) system and reporting tools, and supporting department operations in accordance with county policies and procedures, generally accepted accounting principles and applicable laws. In carrying out this mission, it is essential that the Finance Department provide high quality, customer-friendly service to its internal and external customers. With customers in mind, the Finance Department handles this fiscal responsibility with a spirit of integrity. The Department is represented by a diverse group of people committed to serving our customers and the people of Jefferson County.
