WATCH: BRAD REID, "NORTHUMBERLAND SHORES"

BY BGS STAFF

Jul 12, 2021

Artist: Brad Reid

Hometown: Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

Song: "Northumberland Shores"

Album: NEW Scotland

In Their Words: "This tune has pretty much become a meditation for me. Playing it gives me a sense of feeling calm and grounded, and I think the new video really enhances those feelings for the viewer. There's the common element of feeling isolated, which I think everyone can relate to these days, and the healing benefits of being among nature. The ocean is also symbolic of how my Scottish ancestors came to America, and the tradition of fiddle playing that I grew up with." — Brad Reid
