Hola!

Like every May, to celebrate my 40th birthday, I like to do something special, if not crazy, with the people who have helped me reach this point.

So this year, following the feedback from last year, I am bringing you a selection of my favorite wines, and you choose the price*

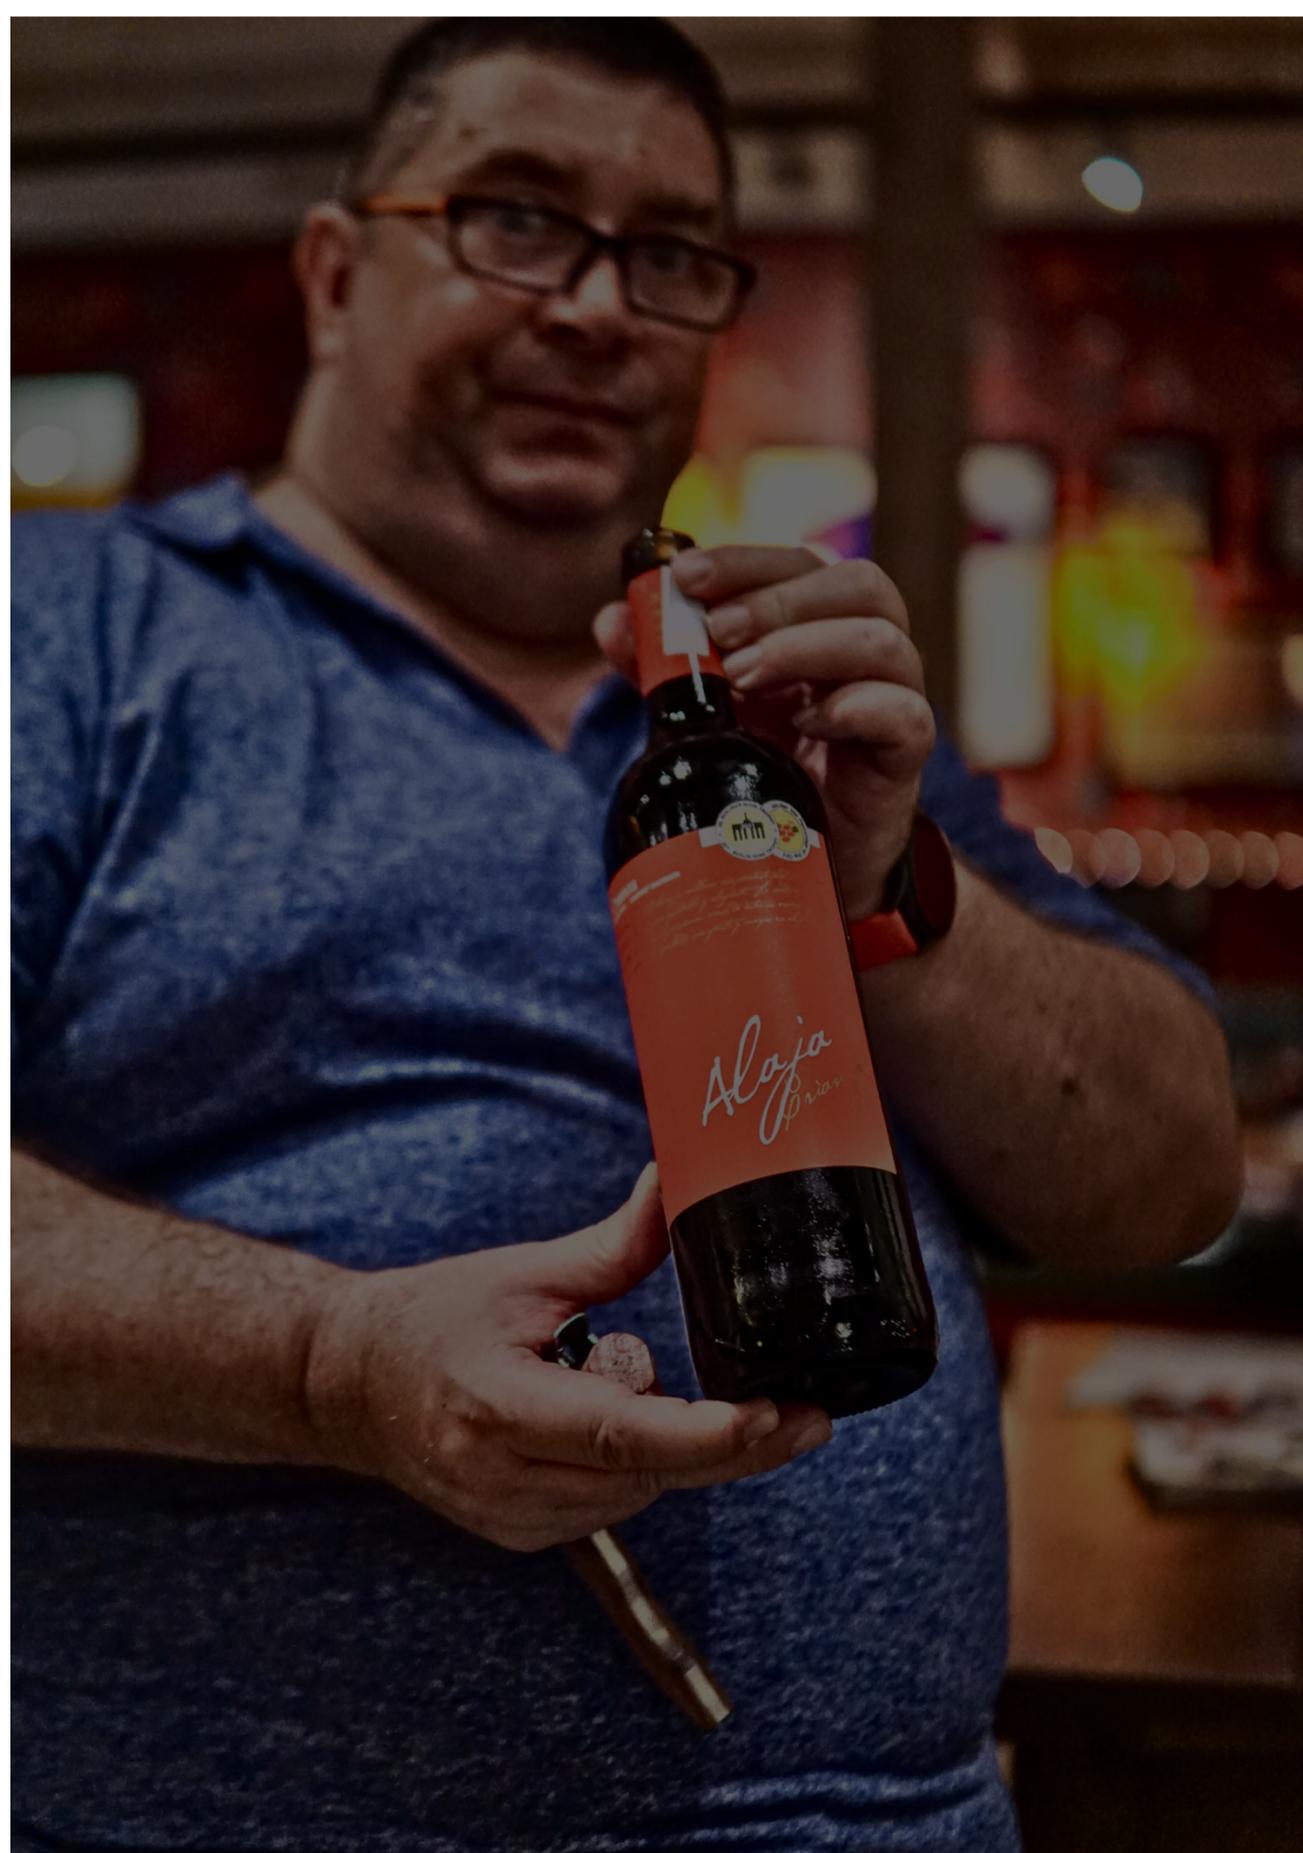

Not a Customer yet, today is a great day to start!

Wines show retail price, if you see something you like, email me (adelacasa@aol.com) or zalo/whatsapp me 0333 867 931 indicating the wines you like, quantity, and how much you would like to pay per bottle, and I will contact you back if it is a yea or not.

02

FINCA COSTANILLAS

This is not a traditional Rioja, or is it? Hailing from the heart of Rioja Alavesa, which produces the best wines, comes this first wine of Ibon, 5th generation of Zuazo family. It is not traditional in the sense that wood is not overpowering the wine, but it is, as it is made how Rioja used to be made: blending Tempranillo with some white grapes, in the style of Cote Rotie

Retail: 1.300.000d

VADILLO CRIANZA

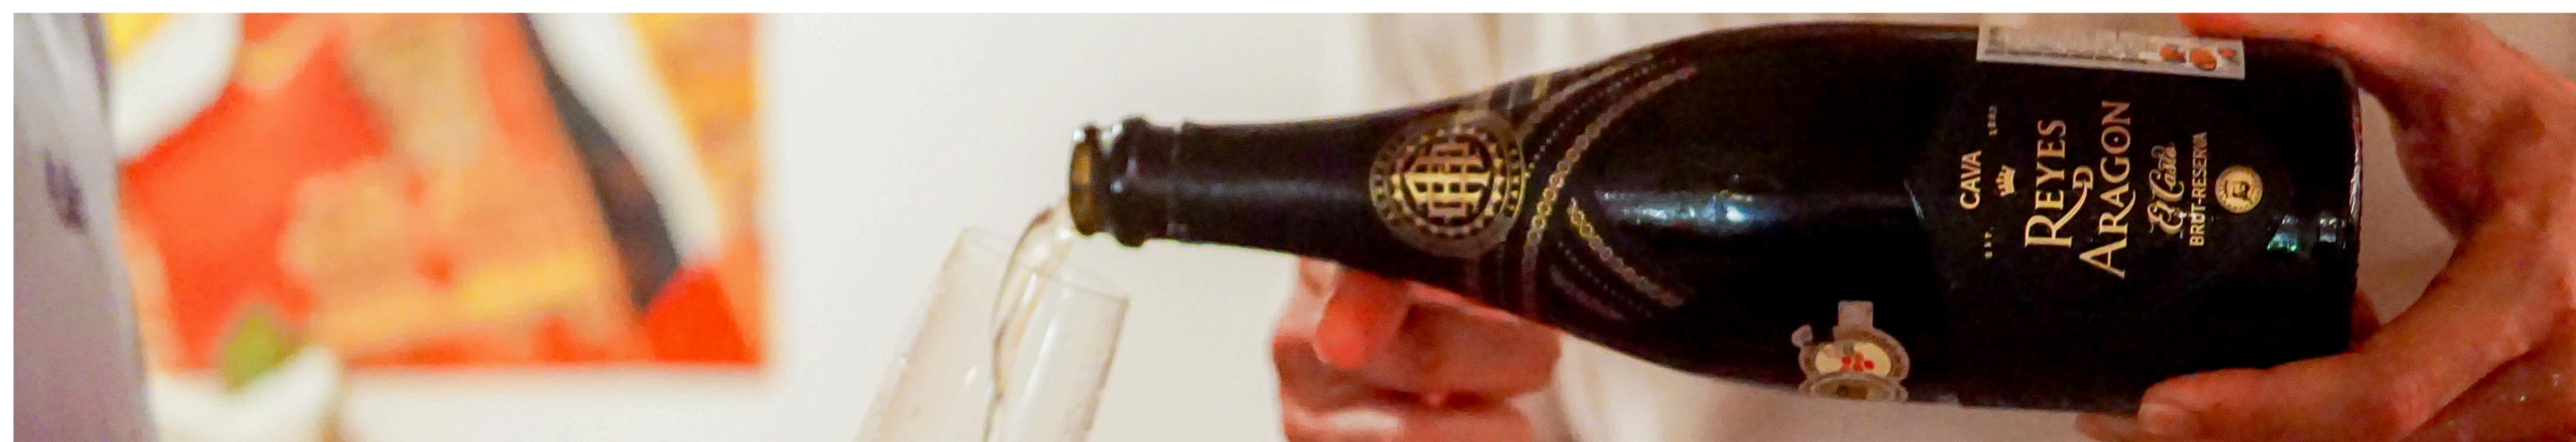

03

Retail: 900.000d

Hailing from Rioja Alavesa, this Tempranilo has been aged for 24 months.

It will deliver everythign you would expect from a good Rioja, and more!

04 REYES RESERVA CAVA

This was an amazing discovery, if you would like to enjoy a great sparkling wine that tastes like good Champagne, but it is priced like Prosecco, this is the one for you!

Retail: 1.175.000d

SANDARA
SPARKLING

05

This is fun, fun and more fun!

Aperitive or dessert, who cares? It is a bit sweet, but not too much, and even though it is purposely low in alcohol (not much than a good beer), dont get tricked by its sexy looks, have it very cold, and you are likely to finish the bottle by yourself before you open the second one, dont believe me? try it!

Not a MACHO wine, as most men will tell you, funny enough, in all events, men drunk much more of it than women, even though many other options available!

Retail: 675.000d

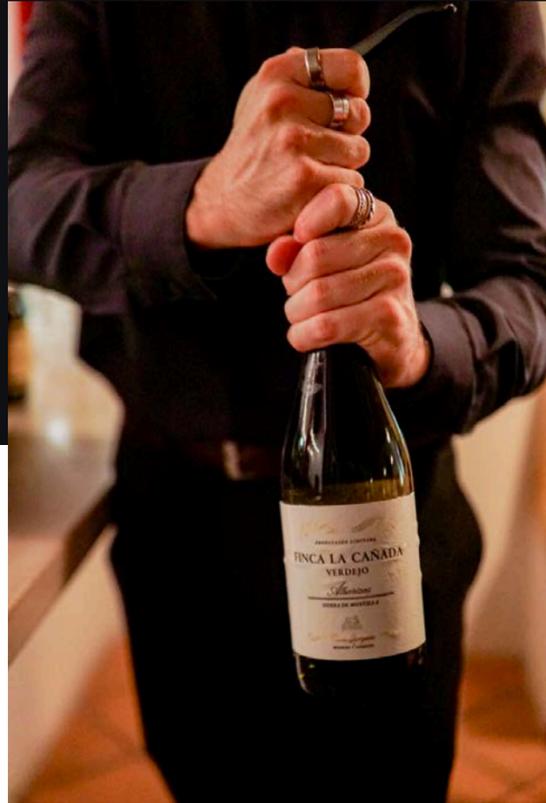

MITICO

Likely the best value top end white wine we have, why? Because it is a Chardonnay, wait dont run away even if you have Chardonnay, because: it does not taste like Chardonnay at all!

Think of Chablis, albarino, a subtle luxury wine

Retail: 900.000d

LUZON

Like Asian/spicy, Mexican, Thai, Italian,...
Correct, it goes well with almost any kind of food, or on its own, but do not be fooled by the cure label, it kicks even though it is super smooth

Retail: 750.000d

FRENESI 12

This wine is a real bomb, awarded 97 points and is a stallion of power blending Shiraz, Grenache, Cabernet and a few other grapes even Merlot.
