

DuJuan McCoy selected as the 2022 recipient of the Achievement in Business and Entrepreneurship Award

INDIANAPOLIS – DuJuan McCoy, Owner, President, and CEO of Circle City Broadcasting, has been selected as the 2022 recipient of the Achievement in Business and Entrepreneurship Award. This award will be presented by Governor Eric J. Holcomb at the Governor's Reception in partnership with Indiana Civil Rights Commission and Indiana Black Expo, Inc. on July 12. This award is given to a recipient who has excelled in industry and uses their accomplishments to give back to the community. The Indiana Black Expo celebration acknowledges the outstanding achievement of African Americans throughout the State of Indiana, and the awards recognize some of the community's unsung heroes who tirelessly for the advancement of all Hoosiers.

In September 2019, Circle City Broadcasting purchased WISH-TV and WNDY in his hometown of Indianapolis. Since then, he has hired the first and only reporter who is fully dedicated to providing balanced reporting on Multicultural community stories, as well as the first and only fully dedicated Medical Reporter and Medical Expert in the state. He also created Indiana's first and only Statewide TV News Network which now reaches over 13.75 million viewers.
