INDIANAPOLIS – March 27, 2025 – DuJuan McCoy, Owner, President, and CEO of Circle City Broadcasting (parent company of WISH-TV and MyINDY-TV 23) today announced that the stations will be an Official Broadcast Partner of Indy Eleven for the 12th year in a row. Fans of Indiana's Team will have an over-the-air option to watch a minimum of 15 matches this season, a combination of home (Carroll Stadium) and road games.

For the first time ever, WISH-TV's statewide local sports clearance will broadcast the games to WHME 46 in South Bend and WLMO 2 in Fort Wayne. Four Indy Eleven games will air on WISH-TV and 16 will broadcast on MyINDY-TV 23, and the full game schedule can be found here. (LINK TO WISHTV.COM ARTICLE)

"WISH-TV and MyINDY-TV 23 are proud to continue to bring professional USL Championship soccer to the homes of more Indiana viewers than ever before," said McCoy. "The partnership with Indy Eleven demonstrates our commitment to focusing on family and community through a local sports line-up."

To prepare for the season, WISH-TV aired "Countdown to Kickoff: Indy Eleven" on March 14 prior to the season opener. The broadcast schedule begins this weekend on MyINDY-TV 23 with the Boys in Blue's home opener against defending champion Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC, with kickoff set for 7 p.m.

"Our goal has always been to serve as Indiana's Team, and thanks to Circle City Broadcasting more Hoosiers than ever before will be able to watch and follow Indy Eleven," said Greg Stremlaw, Indy Eleven President and CEO. "The club and our fans know they are watching the premier local broadcast in the USL Championship when they turn on an Indy Eleven game, and we look forward to WISH-TV & MyINDY-TV 23 delivering those again this season."

Longtime play-by-play man Greg Rakestraw returns for his 12th season as the Voice of Indy Eleven. He will be joined in the broadcast booth this season by a pair of newcomers – former Indy Eleven and Indiana Hoosier fan favorite Brad Ring, as well as Indiana Soccer Hall of Famer Dan Kapsalis, who will share analyst duties. In addition, Tupelo Honey, a Gray Media company, will handle game-day broadcast production for the 11th consecutive year.

In addition to the two-hour game window, every Indy Eleven broadcast on WISH-TV and MyINDY-TV 23 will be followed by the Indy Eleven Post-Game Show, a wrap up of the evening's action featuring extensive highlights and interviews with personalities from Indiana's Team.
