Energy is Everywhere

Energy is Everywhere

(The Quality of Energy in Your Life Matters... a Lot!!!)

Galaxy and Sun

The energy from the Sun supports everything on Earth; bringing health, happiness, and growth.

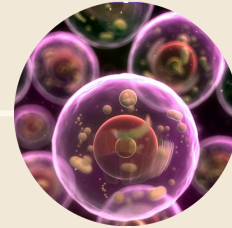

The Body

Every part of your body requires energy to function, to be strong, and to maintain health.

(Physical, Emotional, and Mental)
All parts of life need energy.

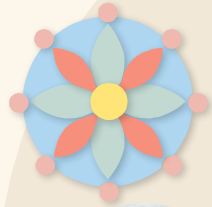

the Cells Within

Inside every cell, energy is used to produce vital components for life. All aspects of life function best when the needed energy is available.

“Prana” means “Life Force Energy”

(Everything is made real, sustained, and animated by Prana)

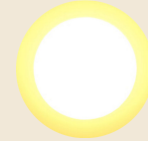

Since ancient times, every culture has known about this, “Life Force Energy.”
Living takes energy; thinking, feeling, and acting all require energy.

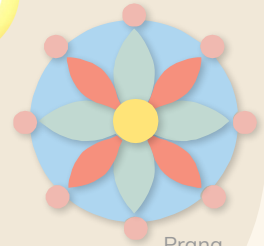

This "Life Force Energy" comes from the food and liquids we take in.

This "Life Force Energy" comes from our surroundings, the planet, and from the sun.

This "Life Force Energy" is also generated by each individual when they; think, speak, and act.

Prana

Every area of Life can be enhanced, healed, and sustain with Prana.

This is Pranic Healing

“No Touch”

Energy can be removed from and introduced to a person’s system across great distances without pain or touch.

All Areas of Life

Energy is found in every part of a person’s life so Pranic Healing can help in all those areas too: health, happiness, and prosperity (relationships and at work).

Receptivity

Being open to this process is important as it facilitates the movement of energy and aids in healing.

“Spread the Love”

As a person begins to heal, the LOVE energy spreads from them to those around them and beyond; family, friends, and the community.
