

Pathways is a bespoke and personalised opportunity, to enable students to prepare for post 16 and aim for their own goals.

Our intent for an ambitious Pathways curriculum

Aims

REACH Pathways will ensure all students:

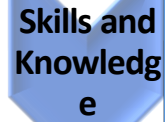

Respect: Pathways lessons are not just about Post 16 options and planning for the future: they provide hope, meaning and purpose.

Employable: the Skills Builder language of employability develops students' confidence to dive into the local and global labour markets, to pursue what matters to them.

Aspirational, students will discover a range of options, careers, routes, to build on their own career pathways.

Courageous: students will find their purpose, discovering what matters to them and their place in the world.

Happy: students will feel safe, and have the ability to navigate life's challenges.

Skills and Knowledge

. The skills learned from studying Pathways will help students to plan for their future career and build knowledge and experience, enabling them to encounter and access the pertinent Further Education and Job training

Real World Experiences

- Students will have meaningful encounters with employers, employees, Post 16 providers and alumni.

Future pathways

- Students will receive personal guidance, learn from the career and labour market information, and experience meaningful encounters with employers and further and higher education establishments

Challenge

- Students will have the confidence to write a CV and apply and interview for Post 16 placements

Enriching

- Students will make life choices in finances, relationships, lifestyle choices and apply their rights at work.
