Title: Your resilience in Christ pays off!

Brief overview: Peter the Apostle's flesh gave up but his heart did not and Christ knew it. Along with knowing resiliency is in Peter for he returned to what he knew not understanding his denial built determination.

Points:

1. Don't give up - give in.
2. Denial builds determination
3. Resilience in Christ pays off

Engage: Inspiring to move the hearts of women and men to see more than their now and what their impact by just reaching one really means. It is always a challenge to stay the course especially when you encounter a tough choice but when your heart is in it, that is incentive to believe Philippians 1:6 - "He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. My hope is to empower the atmosphere by yielding to the Holy Spirit to shift a room to what God wants to pour out. Now that will be a momentum!

Theme correlation: Momentum - is movement and we read in Proverbs 23:7 that as we think, so we do. This workshop will inspire many to move forward, give into Jesus, be determined to see it through, and keep going because resilience in Christ does pay off.
