Charisse Holder

Charisse Holder is a woman who loves God and her family. She is married to her wonderful husband, Deacon Lou Holder and has two beautiful children, Jasmine (19) and Jordan (24).

Charisse is a business owner, Certified Interior Decorator, Author of the book titled 'Interior Joy', and the 'Interior Joy Home Planner System'. Her business is TRANSFORMATIONS Home and life, located in Prince Georges County, MD.

As an advocate for maximizing potential, Charisse uses her spiritual gifting of 'exhortation' to teach, uplift, and encourage others to live their best life- the life God intended. Over the past eleven years, she has facilitated many successful focus-study intensives (6-week and 10-week sessions) through the First Baptist Church of Glenarden Women's Focus Study (WFS) ministry. The sessions are titled 'The Home Experience' and 'Interior Joy'. In addition, she has served as an instructor, for the Continuing Education Department of Prince Georges Community College. There, she spent many years teaching students how to create beautiful environments that support reaching personal goals and experiencing next-level-living.

In addition, Charisse maximized her business skills, from her extensive corporate background, to start and run her own company, TRANSFORMATIONS Home and Life, for the past seventeen years. She has served as an Independent Contractor in the areas of leadership development, training and logistics in both private and various government agencies, including the Department of Homeland Security, NASA, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) and the FDA.

Charisse is excited about the future and where God is taking her. She continues to mentor budding entrepreneurs and serves as a presenter on various personal development topics. One of her greatest passions is showing Christian entrepreneurs how to put their gifts into action!

Charisse is a graduate, with honors, from Hampton University with a BS degree in Marketing. She resides in the state of Maryland.
