

Charlene Ransom, MSW Charlene is unapologetically Christian and passionate about serving others. She discovered her purpose early in life, and has made it her mission to live life in purpose. Charlene received her bachelor's degree in psychology and master's degree in social work, both from Rutgers University. She is a certified Trauma Informed Care Trainer, an advocate for individuals with special needs, coach for the Special Olympics, a distinguished and competent communicator with Toastmasters International, member Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated, and a licensed minister. From her genesis, she has defied the odds and as a result of her resiliency, she insists on empowering others to Never Give Up! Charlene is the founder and CEO of Beacon of Lite Consulting Agency.