

Kellee Fearon
Associate Director, Commercial Leadership Excellence
Owner AmenaPartners_llc

Kellee Fearon is a Leadership Facilitator, Professional Coach, and Speaker.

Kellee manages leadership development across the Janssen NA organization and is a trusted advisor for the CVM business unit. She also manages leadership training for ERG leaders, and she is a group coach for the Re-Ignite global community across Johnson and Johnson.

Her professional tenure has earned her 10 years of Learning and Development experience. 8 years of Sales Management experience including leading a team as a Performance Coach with a short stint in Human Resources. In her role as Performance Coach, Kellee led the matrix team to hire, design, develop and implement the Account Manager team for deployment across the country. She led matrix team strategy and communications with Sales Leadership and Learning and Development. Previous experiences earned her corporate Achievement Awards. She was also appointed to Corporate Liaison for the Philadelphia Urban League by Executive Leadership.

She holds a B.S. in Marketing/Management from Morgan State University and a graduate certification in Women in Business and Leadership from Wharton. Kellee was selected by her VP to participate in the six-month Urban League Leadership Development Program facilitated by Tri-Zen Consulting. She is certified in the 6 disciplines of learning. She is certified in Leadership Coaching for Organizational Performance from Rutgers University; accredited by the International Coaching Federation.

Kellee enjoys coaching and development, she thrives in creating opportunities for others to succeed. She continues to coach individuals and groups in Business and entrepreneurial ventures with an emphasis on professional development through her updated business. Kellee is married to her husband Barry, with two children, Zuri and Zion. Kellee has a passion for giving back to the community through various organizations, she is a Podcast enthusiast and loves to travel.