

Lardina Coles is a multifaceted individual who wears many hats with grace and purpose. At 46 years old, she has crafted a life dedicated to service, education, and empowerment. As a teacher, pastor, and business owner of "The Empowered Woman," Lardina embodies the spirit of leadership and compassion.

With a Bachelor's degree in Special Education and a Master's in Business, Lardina possesses a unique blend of skills and knowledge that she leverages to uplift and inspire others. Her career in education has allowed her to touch the lives of countless students, shaping minds and hearts with her wisdom and guidance.

Beyond the classroom, Lardina serves as a beacon of hope and inspiration in her community as a devoted pastor. She brings comfort and guidance to those in need, offering words of encouragement and support during life's most challenging moments.

As the founder of "The Empowered Woman," Lardina channels her passion for mentoring and empowering women. Through this platform, she helps women heal, grow, and thrive, fostering a community of strength and resilience. Her dedication to empowering others stems from her own journey of overcoming obstacles and embracing her true potential.

Lardina's personal life is equally fulfilling, as she celebrates 18 years of marriage and cherishes her role as a mother to four children, as well as raising her nieces. Her family is the cornerstone of her strength, providing her with love, support, and inspiration to continue making a difference in the world.

Driven by a deep desire to see others succeed, Lardina Coles embodies the essence of leadership, compassion, and empowerment. With her unwavering commitment to serving others, she continues to leave an indelible mark on the hearts and minds of all who have the privilege of knowing her.
