

Pastor Christina Jenkins Short Bio

Christina Jenkins, who also goes by the nickname Chrissy, was born and raised in Baltimore City Maryland to the late Constance Jenkins and Spencer Lyles. Chrissy attended the Baltimore City Public School system where she maintained a 3.0 or higher GPA and participated in all her school's extra curriculum activities as well as after school programs. She would become the head of the dance troop as well as captain of the cheerleading team, she would also close out her senior year with multiple internships at The Baltimore School of Law and The Southeastern Police District, upon her graduating she would then go on to further her education by attending Baltimore City Community College where she studied civil and criminal law.

Christina always knew she was destined for greatness at a youthful age, so she applied herself to everything she put her hands to do. At twelve, she would become part of the Garden of Prayer Spiritual Dancers and then at sixteen she would become one of the youngest choreographers to teach in the AME District of Baltimore City Maryland. She would then become the lead choreographer for her home church at that time Emmanuel Temple AME in Baltimore under her then Pastor the late great Rev. Dr. Peggy E Wall. Christina continued to serve in ministry as she became a young adult under her spiritual leaders Apostle Glynis Richardson and Bishop Nathaniel Jordan of Mercy Seat Tabernacle, she was ordained as a Pastor at the age of twenty-five where she would be trained and developed under leadership, next she would go on to start the ministry that God had birthed in her (Prophetic Movement Ministries) where she led for 3 years alongside her former husband of thirteen years Elder Kewaun Pittman. She would continue to travel the DMV area ministering at Conferences, workshops, and seminars sharing her ministry Gods people and serving in the capacities that God has given her grace to abide in, and now at the age of thirty-eight she is continuing the work of the kingdom with humility and diligence! Pastor Christina believes systems and covenant faith in God has always brought her to a place in Him if total surrender! She is a firm believer of studying to die not to preach but to be acceptable in the sight of God and always point people back to Him!!

One of her favorite scriptures is Isaiah 40:31 "But those who trust in the Lord will find new strength. They will soar high on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not faint.
