

Quionne Matchett is a mother, author, speaker, coach, preacher, and prayer leader. It's her passion to inspire hope and empower women to break free from the pain of their past. As a Reset Coach, she teaches women that there are worse things than starting over and motivates them to transform their pain to power and use it as a platform for purpose.

Quionne is an educated woman having completed a Bachelor of Arts degree in Africana Studies and a Master of Arts degree in Labor and Employment Relations from Rutgers University. She is currently pursuing a Certificate in Theological Studies at New Brunswick Theological Seminary.

Quionne has spoken at churches, conferences, and hosted events on various topics like prayer, negotiation, leadership, pursuing purpose, and unleashing your inner power. She uses biblical principles to inspire others to pursue purpose and live their best life.

Quionne has over 25 years of professional experience in higher education and is skilled in leadership, labor and employment relations, mediation, and negotiation. She is also a licensed minister and humbly serves in ministry under the leadership of Bishop Dorion Morgan and Pastor Joy Morgan of Restoration Station Christian Fellowship in Edgewater Park, NJ.