Right Relationship

<sup>14</sup> The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. <sup>15</sup> In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. <sup>16</sup> In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: “The LORD is our righteousness.”

Jeremiah 33:14-16 NRSV

In these verses, the prophet is talking about the leadership of the future — that’s the meaning of “righteous Branch.” This branch will emerge out of the family tree of King David, the greatest of Israel’s kings, the one who was — despite his flaws — “a man after [God’s] own heart” (1 Samuel 13:14). This new leader is, of course, Jesus Christ, born into the house and family of David (Luke 2:4). He is the one who teaches us righteousness, a word which is best defined as “right relationship.” Jesus wants us to show justice and righteousness in our relationships with each other and in our relationship with God.

The next four weeks of the Advent season will give us an excellent opportunity to turn to God. The word Advent means “coming,” and it is the time each year in which we prepare ourselves for the arrival of Jesus at Christmas. In this season, we are invited to look forward in hope, not anxiety. To put our faith in Jesus, not in ourselves. To believe that God really has come in human form to heal us, help us, provide for us, and save us. The message of Advent is that Christ is coming. Jesus is nothing less than the Prince of Peace, the One who is “the way, and the truth, and the life” (John 14:6). He is the One who shows us the abundance of God’s steadfast love for us, and the desire of God to save us from anything that can hurt or destroy us.

The First Sunday of Advent is regarded in the Western Church as the beginning of the liturgical year. But Advent is first of all about the end of time. Because the term itself means “coming” or “arrival,” and because it precedes Christmas, many have misunderstood Advent to be exclusively a time to get ready to celebrate the coming of a child at Bethlehem. In fact, the primary focus of Advent is on what is popularly called “the second coming.” Advent is therefore a celebration of the promise that Christ will bring an end to all that is contrary to the ways of God: the inauguration and anticipation of what is yet to come in fullness<sup>1</sup>.

Although the world will continue to make us anxious, Jesus comes to offer us perfect peace.

*Grace,
Pastor Cal*

All men are welcome!

The music ensembles are back at Court Street!! In October Jubelation played for the service and did a great job. Cudos for all their hard work. By the time you read this, the chancel choir will have sung on November 21st "A Celtic Thanksgiving," something we did a couple years back. The youth choir has gone through a change. They are now called youth music. It better describes what music is for our young people. They will be singing and playing choir chimes for the early service on Christmas Eve. We had a great first rehearsal on Sunday, November 7th! In December we will welcome Hannah Flynn from Rockford University. Christmas Eve will be a special time, as we welcome Nanette Felix to play the harp and the chancel choir to sing and the bells to play, as well as a number of Carols to sing for the congregation. I feel very blessed to be your music director. We have a great staff here at Court Street, and I am proud to be a part of it!

God Bless,
Jack

Health & Wellness: From our Parish Nurse

How has reflecting on this past year changed you? How does one's faith and lifestyle affect us and others? A definition of lifestyle is, "A way of life or style of living that reflects the attitudes and values of a person or group." No matter what your age or where you are in your life today, it is never too late to improve your lifestyle, to make the most of your health and well-being. This also applies to our faith journey. Being stronger both physically and mentally allows for greater resistance to illness and faster healing. We truly need each other and God in our lives.

Trusting in God is also a way of practicing optimism. Prayer is a gift for all of us to exercise that allows us to communicate directly with God. A sincere, frequent, and frank talk with God provides opportunities for introspection. Praying for help encourages us to examine what we truly need and what we are requesting from God. It is a personal act that can be performed alone or with others and can provide a great source of stress relief.

All relationships require good communication in order to be maintained and grown. It is no different when talking with God. Prayer should be a regular daily part of our life. What's nice about prayer is that it can happen anytime and anywhere. The more we choose this gift given to us and are thankful for prayer, the more we can see the benefits. Often, prayers are given at the beginning and end of each day. Prayers upon rising can help set the tone of the day, by being thankful for another day to grow and help others. Prayers at the end of the day acknowledge God's guidance through the day as we reflect on the day's lessons. It gives us the time to ask for strength through life's challenging circumstances we do not understand.

God grows us as we use prayer. Prayers can help us avoid repeating past mistakes and gain confidence in the ability to make sound future choices. Praying with and for others can be an exercise in having empathy. We may be surprised that in remembering others and dedicating prayers to others, we can have a positive effect on our own mood and feelings of well being.

There are many verses in the Bible that we can memorize to help us and to remind us of God's love for us. The Bible teaches us how to live our lives through grace. Reading the Bible and learning how God reaches out to us is another way of staying healthy. The verses listed are just a few to help encourage us, and ones you may want to share with someone. Here is an exercise, and

I hope these verses will spark the desire to read the Bible and to memorize your favorites.

- Psalm 9:9-10
- Psalm 16:8
- Deuteronomy 31:8
- Isaiah 40: 28-31
- Luke 12: 25-26
- John 16:33

Jeremiah 29:11 is one of my favorites, "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future," and Psalm 46:10, "Be still and know that I am God."

Let the gift of reading the Bible or listening by CD enable us to trust God and grow closer to Him by exercising the power of prayer. Let our grace story and "lifestyle" continue to forge our family of faith at Court Street this December and beyond. God Bless us all.....and Merry Christmas!

Angel Tree Ministry is a program designed for children whose parent is in prison. This year we have 60 children. Many of these children live in our church neighborhood. We buy gifts for the children and give them on behalf of the parent who is in prison. Family members of the children will be contacted to determine needs. Each child will receive 2 gifts, one a toy and one a clothing item. You can help us by:

1. Volunteering to distribute angels following any worship service
2. Buying gifts for the children ($15-$25 each Retail) Do not buy any gifts until you receive your angel(s)!
3. Making a cash donation or a check payable to Court Street United Methodist Church with Angel Tree Ministry on memo line and mailing to Barb or Gene Ferry at 1321 Camp Avenue, Rockford, IL, 61103
4. Shopping for gifts
5. Organizing and delivering gifts between December 19th and December 23rd
