People: You hear our prayer.

Leader: Heal all who are in need of your care and attention. We pray for those who hurt in body, mind, or spirit. Merciful God,

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON: Matthew 20:1-16 (The Message)

Jesus said, "God's kingdom is like an estate manager who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. They agreed on a wage of a dollar a day, and went to work.

³⁻⁵ "Later, about nine o'clock, the manager saw some other men hanging around the town square unemployed. He told them to go to work in his vineyard and he would pay them a fair wage. They went.

⁵⁻⁶ "He did the same thing at noon, and again at three o'clock. At five o'clock he went back and found still others standing around. He said, 'Why are you standing around all day doing nothing?'

*⁷ "They said, 'Because no one hired us.'
"He told them to go to work in his vineyard.*

⁸ "When the day's work was over, the owner of the vineyard instructed his foreman, 'Call the workers in and pay them their wages. Start with the last hired and go on to the first.'

⁹⁻¹² "Those hired at five o'clock came up and were each given a dollar. When those who were hired first saw that, they assumed they would get far more. But they got the same, each of them one dollar. Taking the dollar, they groused angrily to the manager, 'These last workers put in only one easy hour, and you just made them equal to us, who slaved all day under a scorching sun.'

¹³⁻¹⁵ "He replied to the one speaking for the rest, 'Friend, I haven't been unfair. We agreed on the wage of a dollar, didn't we? So take it and go. I decided to give to the one who came last the same as you. Can't I do what I want with my own money? Are you going to get stingy because I am generous?'

¹⁶ "Here it is again, the Great Reversal: many of the first ending up last, and the last first."

LITANY OF RESPONSE

Left Side: We have labored long in the vineyard.

Right Side: We have only just arrived.

Left Side: We have lived our whole lives in the faith.

Right Side: We are new to everything, open to learning.

Left Side: We have sweated and toiled for this community.

Right Side: We have not yet done much service.

Left Side: We have built everything you see here.

Right Side: We have new ideas for changes.

Left Side: Surely we are of more value, our opinions carry more weight.

Right Side: Don't we have a say in how we do God's work in the world?

Left Side: God has given us all an equal wage, no matter when we arrived in the vineyard.

Right Side: We are grateful for God's great generosity.

Left Side: We, too, can be grateful for it, and live generously in response.

Right Side: Thanks be to God!

CELEBRATING THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

In the United Church of Christ, we practice an Open Table. You need not be a church member to commune; you need only a sincere desire to draw near to Christ and seek peace with your neighbor. Saturday, communion elements will be offered by coming forward or are available on the bulletin/offering table. Sunday, communion elements are available on the bulletin/offering tables. Sunday, we hold the elements and commune together.

Leader: Brothers and sisters in Christ, the gospels tell us that on the first day of the week, the day on which our Lord rose from the dead, he appeared to some of his disciples and was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

People: We come to celebrate the joyful feast of our Lord.

Leader: Let us pray.

People: Holy God, you are mighty in power, yet abounding in mercy. While our world was marred with sin and brokenness, you made a covenant with your people. You promised to renew your creation. You promised to give hope amid the sorrow, healing in place of sickness, wholeness in place of emptiness.

Leader: You stepped into our darkness in the person of Jesus Christ. He came quietly to a young, unwed mother through the power of your Holy Spirit. He experienced our human joys and sorrows.

People: Then the King of kings showed us how to live. He healed the sick, cared for the least of society, and took time for children. He forgave sins and performed miracles. He loved and he served. He gave up his very life for his friends. He died the disgraceful death of a criminal for us. Yet, you raised him out of the tomb. He triumphed over death that we, too, may live.

Leader: On the night before our Lord died, he ate with his disciples. As we so often do, Jesus began with prayer. He took the bread and cup, and shared them with his friends, saying, "This is my body given for you. This cup is poured out for you. My body and my blood are given for the forgiveness of your sins. Do this in remembrance of me."

People: So, loving God, we do, in obedience to your command, eat and drink from the cup. As we do, we remember with awe and gratitude the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Leader: We rejoice that your great love through Christ's sacrifice has set us free and given us hope for a future with you.

People: Until our Lord Jesus returns to establish his kingdom without end, we will joyfully proclaim his death and resurrection. Amen.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Leader: It is through the broken bread we participate in the body of Christ. It is through the cup we participate in the forgiveness offered to us by Jesus. These are the gifts of God for the people of God. All things are now ready.

SHARING THE BREAD AND CUP

The Body of Christ, the Bread of Heaven: Take and eat!

The Cup of the New Covenant, the Blood of Christ: Take and drink!

Leader: Let us pray together.

All: We bless you, O God, for the gifts of bread and cup, for sustaining us in hope every day of our lives. We pray for your strength to prepare us now for your service in the world as we offer to you lives of witness and worship in the world that you have made. We pray this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Friend, Amen.

March Monthly Mission: One Great Hour of Sharing

Deadly wildfires, hurricanes, earthquakes, floods, and wars have left people homeless, families grieving loss of loved ones, and entire communities awaiting assistance for long term disaster recovery.

Refugees and asylum seekers are left in limbo, languishing at borders, awaiting welcome. Many have been displaced by economic conditions, war, and climate change. Among the millions of refugees are families looking for safe places that they can call home.

In the midst of these despairing moments, the United Church of Christ is able to offer hope as we stand in solidarity and mutuality with communities suffering and in need. Through Wider Church Ministries, the United Church of Christ fulfills its commitment to respond to a variety of global and local concerns by providing advocacy, sustainable development resources, long term disaster recovery support, and assistance for refugee and asylum seekers, working in collaboration with our partners locally and globally.

With your gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing, we are able to be present for the long term in disaster recovery, as we partner with churches and organizations around the world to walk with families as they rebuild their homes and lives.

Thank you for your gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing, as together we build a just world for all.

With Gratitude and Hope, Rev. Dr. Karen Georgia Thompson, AGM, Wider Church Ministries and Co-Executive Global Ministries
